

Issues of Security and Human Resiliency

Nancy E. Brune

Center for A New American Security and Sandia National Laboratories

Atlantic Basin Initiative
Center for Transatlantic Relations
Johns Hopkins University

Economic and Security Linkages

Country	Rank (Violent deaths per 100,000 citizens) 2004-2009	Change in FDI flows 2008-2010
El Salvador	1 (62)	-88.6%
Honduras	4 (50)	-20.7%
Colombia	5 (48)	-36%
Venezuela	6 (47)	-500%
Guatemala	7 (44)	-10.1%
South Africa	8 (42)	26.3%
Lesotho	10 (34)	6.3%
Central African Republic	11 (33)	-38.5%

Source: UNODC World Drug Report 2009 and UNODC calculations informed by US ONDCP, Cocaine Consumption Estimates Methodology, September 2008 (internal paper).

Drivers of Insecurity: Drug Trafficking

Then (1998)

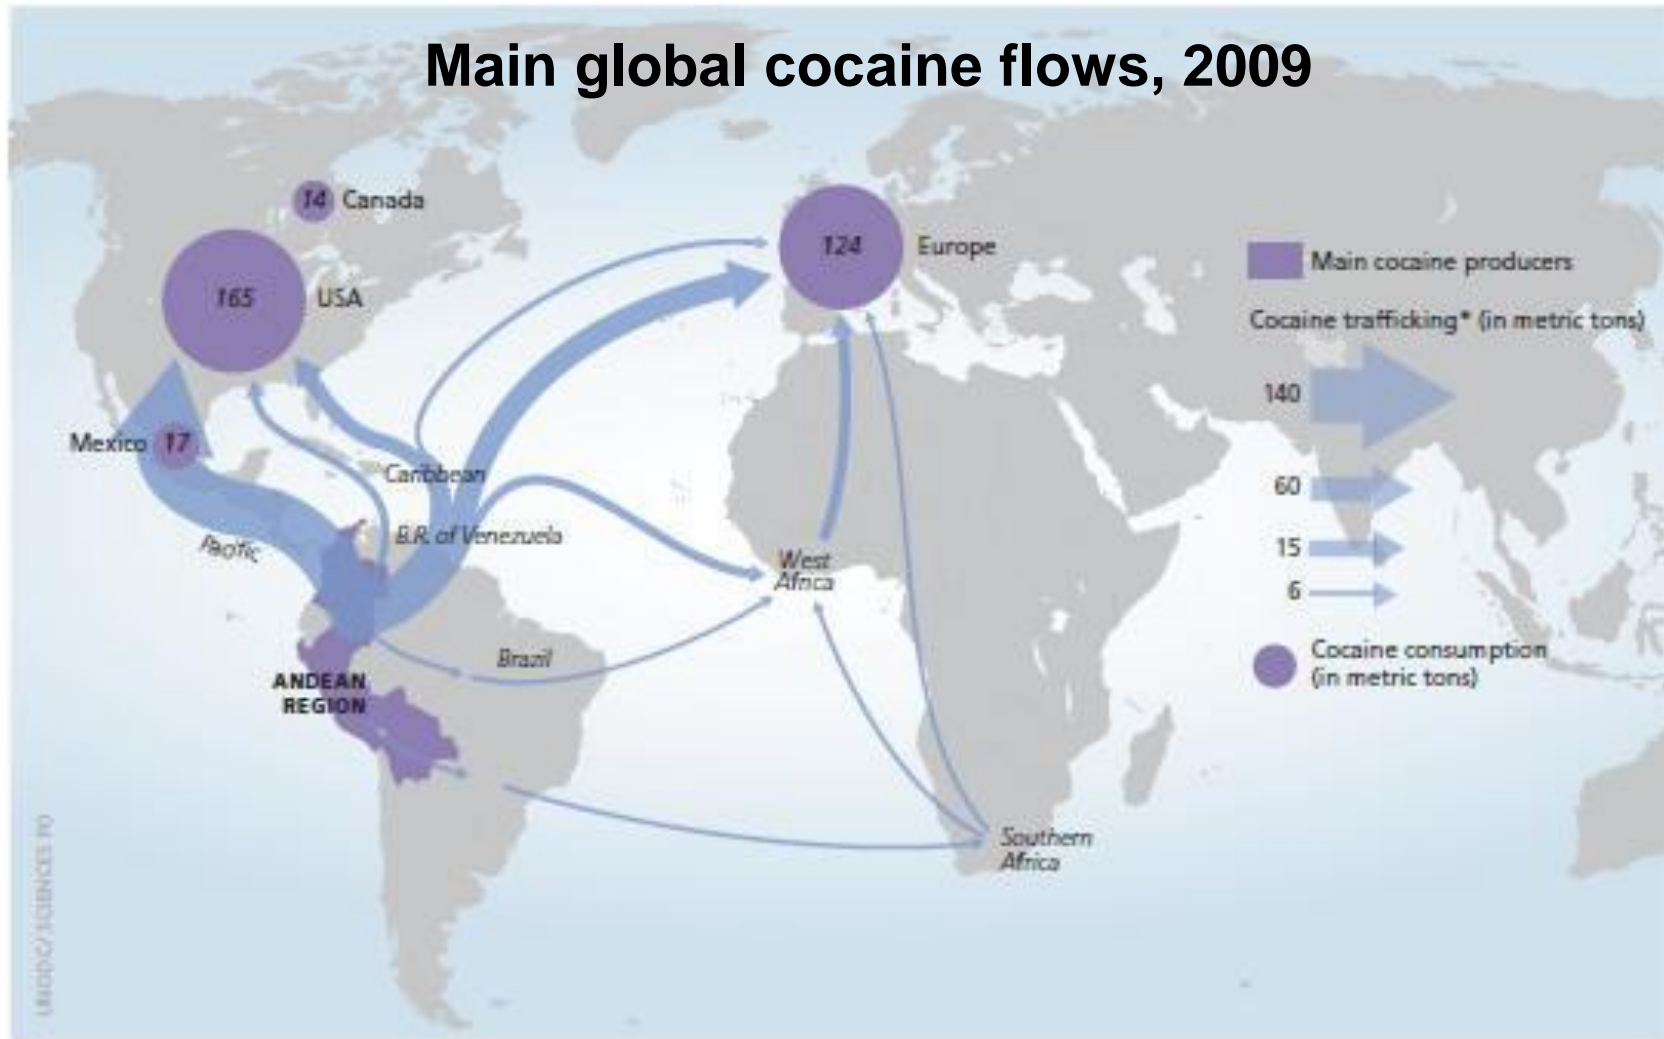

NOW (2008)

Drivers of Insecurity: Drug Trafficking

Main global cocaine flows, 2009

Source: World Drug Report 2011, June 2011

Drivers of Insecurity: Drug Trafficking

Growing concern about terrorism

Growing concern about terrorism

Conclusions

- Atlantic Basin countries face increasing security challenges
- But renewed efforts to improve regional cooperation
- Recommendations for Moving Forward
 - More multilateral and South-South engagement
 - International financial institutions should fund programs that address hard-soft security issues
 - Support regional trade organizations
 - United States must begin to address Latin America's concerns