

The Center for Transatlantic Relations (CTR)
at the Paul H. Nitze School of Advanced International Studies
Johns Hopkins University
EU Center of Excellence Washington D.C.

Invites you to

Kosovo: Reaching for Europe

Presentations by

Ahmet Shala

Kosovo Minister of Economy and Finance

Slobodan Petrović

Member of the Presidency of the Assembly of Kosovo

Comments by

Raymond Gilpin

Associate Vice President for Sustainable Economies,
United States Institute of Peace

Daniel Serwer, Moderator

Senior Fellow, Center for Transatlantic Relations

Kosovo ten years after war and almost three years after independence is facing dramatic political challenges arising from flawed elections and criminal allegations. At the same time, it is preparing for talks with Belgrade and trying hard to catch up with its neighbors and move its economy closer to Europe. This session will be an opportunity to catch up on both the politics and economics of the new state at a moment of great stress and challenge.

When: Tuesday, February 1, 2011

Time: 11:00 AM – 12:30 PM

Where: Room 806, Rome Building, 1619 Massachusetts Ave N.W. Washington D.C.

RSVP: please RSVP to transatlanticsvp@jhu.edu with “Kosovo” in the subject line.