2018-19 Short Term Austrian Marshall Plan Foundation Fellows on Europe, the United States and World Order

Johns Hopkins University
Paul H. Nitze School of Advanced International Studies, Washington, DC

The Austrian Marshall Plan Foundation Fellowships enable outstanding scholars to conduct research on important issues related to “Europe, the United States and World Order” at the Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS) in Washington, D.C.

Short term fellowships of up three (3) months are available anytime between September 2018 to June 2019. Applications are accepted anytime on a rolling basis.

Fellows are closely integrated into the research, training, and outreach activities of the Austrian Marshall Plan Foundation Professor at SAIS, and will participate in SAIS events and meetings. Each Fellow is expected to complete a research paper during the period of residence according to the terms of the assignment entered into with the Foundation.

Each year the School and the Austrian Marshall Plan Foundation identify several themes of particular interest. For 2018-19, we are particularly interested in receiving applications that deal with the theme of “Europe, the United States, and World Order.”

Eligibility

Applicants for Austrian Marshall Plan Foundation Fellowships must have a doctorate or be at the post-doctorate level, have demonstrated research capacity, be fluent in English, and be eligible for a J-1 visa. Preference will be given to those who are no more than 6 years beyond completing their dissertation, although others are also eligible.

For short-term Fellowships, preference will be given to qualified and competitive candidates from Austrian institutions, but we encourage applications from candidates from other countries as well.

Stipend

Each Fellow will enter into a research assignment with the Austrian Marshall Plan Foundation and will receive a monthly stipend of up to $5,000; an office with computer; Internet access; access to Johns Hopkins University libraries and other facilities. Each Fellow is expected to take care of his/her travel, accommodation, health care coverage, and living expenses.

Application Procedure

Each applicant should submit the following (in English):

1. A cover letter stating the applicant's interest in the fellowship.
2. A 3 to 5 page double-spaced statement that proposes a research project, including its relevance to the theme for the year, and identifies a preferred Johns Hopkins SAIS host/research partner.
3. A curriculum vitae.
4. Two letters of recommendation attesting to the applicant's professional competence.

The applicant is responsible for collecting all materials and submitting them in PDF format by email to Jason C. Moyer at transatlantic@jhu.edu. Letters of recommendation should be submitted directly by the recommender to transatlantic@jhu.edu.

Applications are accepted anytime. Austrian Marshall Plan Foundation Fellows are selected on a rolling basis.
